Frequently Asked Questions: (Refer to code 14.04.06)

Q: What is the nature and description of Conditional Use?

Certain uses may or may not be appropriately located within various districts due to their unusual or unique characteristics of operation and external effects. Given their unusual character, of operation and external character, analysis, and judgement of the consequences of each development and use must be given so as to provide for such reasonable conditions and protective restrictions as are deemed necessary to protect the character and integrity of the area in which uses are proposed to be located. Such uses are list under the various districts herein as “conditional uses,” and may be located in the district or districts so designated only in accordance with the procedure described herein.

Q: What are some of the development standards and review guidelines?

- The proposed use is within the provision of “conditional use,” as set out in these regulations.
- The proposed use conforms to all applicable provisions herein set out for the district in which it is to be located.
- The proposed use is designated, located, and proposed to be operated, that the public health, safety, and welfare will be protected.
- The proposed land use is compatible with and will not adversely affect other property in the area where it is proposed to be located.
- The proposed ingress and egress, internal circulation system, location, and amount of off-street parking, loading and pedestrian-ways are sufficiently adequate, and not inconsistent with requirements of these regulations.
- The proposed landscaping and screening of the proposed use are in accordance with provisions of these regulations.
- Safeguards proposed to limit noxious or offensive emissions, including lighting, noise, glare, dust and odor are addressed.

Q: How do I file an appeal?

File appeals to the City Council with the City Clerk. The appeal should consist of the following:

- A cover letter addressed to the Mayor and City Council setting forth the request.
- A copy of the Planning Commission application indicating the action and properly executed by the staff. This filing shall occur within fifteen (15) calendar days of the action by the Planning Commission. Certified mail notice of the appeal hearing shall be provided not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the date of the hearing, and the affidavit and other supporting evidence of notice shall be filed not less than five (5) days prior to the date of review. This notice shall be given to all record parties in interest whether for or against the request. The cost of this notice shall be paid by the appellant.
- In no case shall the Planning Commission or City Council authorize reduction from minimum requirements of these regulations relating to height, area, setbacks, parking, or landscaping.

Q: Once my Conditional Use Permit has been approved, when can I apply for a Building Permit?

No building permit shall be issued for any building or structure not in conformance with the site plan and all other conditions imposed in granting a Conditional Use Permit. The construction, location, use, or operation of all land and structures within the site shall be in accordance with all conditions and limitations set forth in the approval. No structure, use or other element of any approved site plan shall be eliminated, significantly altered, or provided in another manner unless an amendment to the conditional use is approved. The procedure for amending a Conditional Use Permit is the same as required for the original approval. Construction under a Conditional Use Permit must be commenced within one (1) year, or the permit shall terminate.

Q: When does my Conditional Use Permit expire?

Conditional Use Permits shall run with the property and shall be valid for an unlimited period unless a lesser period is provided in a particular permit. Upon the expiration of the time limit specified in the particular permit, the property owner may request that the permit be reviewed by the Planning Commission, which may extend it for an unlimited period or for an additional period of years.

Once any portion of the Conditional Use Permit authorization is utilized, all such conditions pertaining to the authorization becomes immediately operative. All conditions relating to or limiting the use, status, or operation of the development, after issuance of an occupancy permit, shall be complied with by the applicant or his successors or assigns. Failure to do so will constitute a violation of these regulations, and cause for revocation of the Conditional Use authorization.

Please note:

- The Planning Commission and City Council cannot authorize a reduction from minimum requirements of these regulations relating to height, area, setbacks, parking, or landscaping.
- No Conditional Use authorized by the Planning Commission or City Council shall be subsequently considered in connection with a variance request to the Board of Adjustments.
- Provided sufficient site information is submitted with the approved development plan, the Planning Commission may waive otherwise mandated site plan review requirements.
